St. Patrick's Day Party held on March 9th

On Saturday, March 9th, Schorsch Village hosted its annual St. Pat's party. A real special thanks to Joseph's Meat Market for providing the corned beef which, as usual, was fantastic! Also, a special thanks to John (Beans) Turay, who once again knocked it out of the park in the preparation of the corned beef, cabbage, potatoes, and carrots. The word must have gotten out because we had our biggest turnout ever with 99 coming to join in the Irish Spirit!

Schorsch Village Annual Picnic - Saturday, July 27th

Schorsch Village Picnic
 Shiller Woods (Grove 9) 11:00 - 6:00
 Irving Park Road, second entrance west of Cumberland

What to Bring: Your own food to cook on our supplied outdoor grill and also, very important for a hot day; a bag of ice for the shared refreshment tub which will feature water and refreshments for everyone. Also you may want to bring outdoor chairs should you want to watch and/or participate in the bags tournament. Activities will include kid's games starting around 1:00, a bags tournament and other events.

We will have a six foot grill available for all to use. Bring your family and friends and enjoy a getting back to outdoor summertime events!

Frank's Pizzeria & Restaurant

The November issue of Chicago Magazine ranked the 25 best pizza restaurant/bars in Chicago. While 24 of the 25, were either downtown, near Westside or near Northside, there was one on the Northwest Side... our own Frank's pizza on Belmont.

"Frank's doesn't get the love that some of Chicago's other classic tavern-Style spots do, and that's a shame as it serves a model version. Started by The Pianetto family in 1952 and owned by the Prosio family since 1968, Frank's has had the same recipe all along. The crust is crisp and paper thin and perfectly dressed every time. Our favorite, Frank's Special, comes with onion, mushrooms, green peppers, and an excellent house-made Italian sausage."

Congrats Frank's!
